

I do NOT want New Jersey's Do Not call laws weakened. I deserve to have peace and the right to privacy in my own home, free from harassment and sales calls. This is a right that should not be superseded by the greed of marketing companies.